1 Major Blakiston having passed through the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich in 1802, he proceeded to India as a Cadet in the East India Company's Service, and was appointed to the Corps of Engineers on the Madras Establishment, being then on half-pay as a Lieutenant in H.M. Service. In 1803 he served in the campaign against the Mahrattas, and was engaged in the battles of Assaye and Argaum, and at the sieges and assaults of Ahmednuggur and Gawilghur. At the suppression of the mutiny at Vellore in 1805 he directed the guns by which the gate was blown open. In 1810 he acted as Chief Engineer at the capture of the Island of Bourbon. Having been employed in reconnoitring the coast of the Isle of France previous to the arrival of the expedition, he was instrumental in discovering the spot where the descent was made; and, having been appointed to the charge of the Guides, he led the advance of the Army until the surrender of that Island. For his services on the above occasion he was nominated Extra Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief, Sir Samuel Auchmuty, on the expedition to Java in 1811; and having been sent in advance with the Chief Engineer to fix on the point of landing, he was engaged in a serious affair on the coast in the boats of H. M. ships Barracouta and Leda. On the landing of the Army he was engaged in the affairs of Weltevreden and Samarang, and at the siege and assault of the fortified position of Cornelis. In 1812, having attained the rank of Captain in the corps of Madras Engineers, he returned on furlough to England. Shortly afterwards, having been placed on full pay in H. M. 87th Regt., he was appointed to a company in the 17th Portuguese Regt, with which he served in the Light Division of the Penin ular Army until the conclusion of the war; having been present at the battles of Vittoria, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse, and in all the affairs in which the Light Division was engaged. At the siege of San Sebastian he volunteered as an Engineer, and while so engaged was severely wounded. For his services on this occasion he was promoted to a company in the 27th Regt.; in 1816 was placed on half-pay; and on the 23rd June 1843 he was brought on full pay of the 51st Regt., and retired by the sale of his commissions. He has received the War Medal with six Clasps; also the Indian War Medal.

2 Major Cooke served with the 43rd at Walcheren, in 1809. In June 1811 he joined the Light Division in the Peninsula, and was present at the siege and storming of Ciudad Rodrigo, and of Badajoz (wounded at the assault), actions of Castrejon and San Christoval, battle of Salamanca, actions of San Munoz and San Milan, battle of Vittoria (wounded), actions in the Pyrenees, siege of San Sebastian, the attack on the heights of Verna, battle of the Nivelle, battles of the Nive on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th Dec., actions at Tarbes and Arcangues, battle of Toulouse, besides various affairs of less importance. On the 8th Jan. 1813, he was present at the attack on the American Lines before New Orleans. He served afterwards with the Army during the Occupation in France. He has received the War Medal with eight Clasps.

3 Lt.-Colonel Nevill served in the Peninsula with the 2nd Battalion of the 30th, from July 1810 to May 1813; also the campaign of 1814 in Holland, and that of 1815 in the Netherlands: he was present at the defence of Cadiz, occupation of the lines of Torres Vedras, various minor actions when in pursuit of Massena, battle of Fuentes d'Onnar, Siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, siege and storm of Badajoz (severely wounded in the head and leg when leading the ladder party in the Escalade of the St. Vincent Bastion), battle of Salamanca, capture of Madrid, siege of Burgos (severely wounded through the left shoulder in the storm of the first line of the castle, 4th Oct. 1812), bombardment of Antwerp, assault on Bergen-op-Zoom, battle of Waterloo, and capture of Paris: throughout all the above mentioned sieges he acted as an Assistant Engineer. In 1817-18 and 19 he served in the Mahratta war, from the battle of Mahidpore (as a volunteer) to the siege of Asseerghur; and in 1820 he was attached to the Nizam's Troops at the capture of a Predatory Force. After serving 22 years in India with the 30th and 13th Dragoons, and 20th and 63rd Regts., his health failed when in command of the left wing of the 63rd, in a very unhealthy climate. He has received the War Medal with four Clasps; also the India War Medal.

5 Captain M'Coy was present at the operations against the rebel natives of the Southern district of New Zealand, in the Horokiwi Valley, including the skirmish on the 6th Aug. 1840. Also present in the action at Wanganui on the 19th July 1847.

1 Lord Combermere accompanied his regt. (the 6th Dr. Gds.) to Flanders in Aug. 1793, and served to the end of that campaign, and until June of the following one. In 1796 he embarked in command of the 25th Lt. Drs. for the Cape of Good Hope, and served a short but active campaign under Sir Thomas Craig, when he accompanied his regt. to India, where he served in the memorable campaigns of 1798 and 99, against Tippoo Sultan, including the battle of Mallavelly, and siege of Seringapatam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1803, in command of a brigade of cavalry, consisting of the 14th and 16th Lt. Drs., at the head of which he distinguished himself, during the campaign in the north of Portugal, including the operations at Oporto, and afterwards at the battle of Talavera. In Aug. 1809, the local rank of Lieut.-Gen. was conferred upon him; and, early in 1810, he was appointed to the command of the whole allied cavalry under the Duke of Wellington, and remained in that command until the termination of the war in 1814, and distinguished himself at the head of the cavalry upon every occasion that presented itself, including the various actions in covering the retreat from Almeida to Torres Vedras, battle of Busaco, actions at Villa Garcia and Castrajon, battles of Fuentes d'Onor and Salamanca (severely wounded), action at El Bodon, battles of the Pyrenees, Orthes, and Toulouse. Served also at the siege and capture of Bhurtpore, in 1825 and 26, as Commander-in-chief. His Lordship has received a Medal for Seringapatam; the gold Cross and one Clasp for the battles of Talavera, Fuentes d'Onor, Salamanca, Orthes, and Toulouse; and the silver War Medal with three clasps for Busaco, Ciudad Rodrigo, and Pyrenees.

2 Mr. Percivall served in the Peninsula from September, 1813, to the end of the War in 1814, and was present in the battle of Toulouse. Served also the campaign of 1815, including the capture of Paris. He has received the War Medal with two clasps for Orthes and Toulouse.

² Col. Bell served in the Peninsula from July 1811 to the end of that war in 1814, and was engaged in the action of Arroyo de Molino, battle of Vittoria, battles in the Pyrenees, on the 7th, 20th, 30th, and 31st July, 1813, battles of the Nivelle, the Nive, Bayonne, Orthes, Tarbes, and Toulouse, besides a great many affairs and skirmishes. He afterwards served in the East Indies, in the Burmese war, and in the West Indies. He was actively employed during the rebellion in Canada, particularly in the capture of St. Charles, and St. Eustache, he afterwards commanded the small fort and garrison of L'Assommoir, an important position on the River St. Lawrence, and received the thanks of the Commander of the Forces for his impracticable defence of the guns and shot from the bottom of the River, and mounting them in the depth of a Canadian winter. He has received the War Medal with six clasps for Vittoria, the Pyrenees, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse; and the Indian Medal for Ava.

⁴ Lt.-Col. Montgomery served in Ava, and has received the Medal.

⁵ Lt.-Col. Muller served in the Burmese war, and has received the Indian War Medal.

⁶ Major Neville served in Canada during the rebellion of 1837 and 1838, and was engaged with the rebels at St. Charles and St. Eustache.

⁷ Capt. Dowker served as Adjutant of the 6th in the Kaffir War of 1846 and 47.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.
April 28 1857

TO THE EDITOR OF THE MORNING POST.

SIR,—I have read with much interest the leading article in the Morning Post, dated April 23, on the subject of the non-observance of St. George's Day. It would, indeed, be a grave matter had Saint George really sunk to the "lowest grade of all the saints in the knightly calendar;" but your statement that the memory of the soldier saint is absolutely ignored is hardly correct. The anniversaries of St. Andrew, St. Patrick, and St. David are duly celebrated, as all the world knows, in Scotch, Irish, and Welsh regiments; but not the less regularly has St. George's Day been scrupulously and devotedly observed by her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers during the last 200 and odd years. On this occasion the colours are trooped; two roses, red and white, are worn by every man; and the roll of men belonging to the now obsolete but dearly-cherished Order of Merit is read out at the head of the battalion. The order of merit was abolished in favour of the good conduct medal in 1856, but the roll is still carefully kept. Until a recent date the "third" or "drummer's" colour of the regiment invariably made its appearance on St. George's Day. The colour itself is a silk banner of a bright and lively green, beautifully embroidered with St. George and the Dragon, and the order of merit also bore the same crest, which naturally appears on all regimental plate and property, while the commanding officer's flag is the blood-red cross of St. George on a white field, with St. George and the Dragon woven in the centre. It is supposed that the badge was first awarded in 1674, when Sir John Fenwick was appointed colonel of the regiment. However, there it is, and to this day it is a popular superstition amongst all recruits for the "old Fifth" that the regiment was at some remote period commanded by Saint George himself. Amongst the ancient records there still exists the most stringent orders on the subject of cheering and using St. George as a battle-cry when charging the enemy. The soldier previous to immediate conflict is enjoined to shout in a loud and terrible voice, "Forward St. George. Have at them St. George! St. George for England!" Whereby the soldier is much comforted and the enemy "dismayed." "And," continues the order, "all soldiers who are contumacious and fail to observe this command will be severely dealt with." This year for the first time on record, the roses were not worn, and no parade was held as a mark of mourning and respect to the memory of Lord Longford, colonel of the regiment, who died on the 20th of the month. But although the anniversary could not be celebrated with the pomp and rejoicing worthy of the Patron Saint in this, a Jubilee year, it is very far from being forgotten. Whenever two or more men are gathered together on the 25th April, who have served under the colours which bear St. George's badge and the motto "Quo Fata Vocant," there St. George's Day is duly observed and kept.

He proceeded to the Peninsula in 1808, and was severely wounded at the battle of Vimiera. In Jan. 1809, he joined the Lusitanian legion, and acted with this corps during an arduous period of service, in which it was repeatedly engaged with the enemy, being employed in covering Ciudad Rodrigo and Almeida. In June 1810, he was attached to the Portuguese army, and during the subsequent operations against Marshal Soult, as well in the north of Portugal as on the eastern frontier, he commanded an advanced corps of Marshal Beresford's army. In April 1811, he was appointed second in command to General Silveira in the province of Tras os Montes, and acted as such during a period of the operations against Puebla da Sanabria, when the place was taken by that general. In Sept. following, he was appointed to the command of the advanced guard of General Bargellat's Corps d'Armee, and employed on Marshal Massena's rear during his invasion of Portugal, being repeatedly engaged with the enemy. In April 1812, took the field again in command of the Militia of the Province of Minho, and was engaged in active operations against Marshal Marmon, on the frontiers of the Beira. In June 1813, he joined the army at his own request, and was appointed to the command of the 1st Portuguese Brigade of Infantry, with which he served at the siege of San Sebastian, the passage of the Bidassoa, and battle of the Nivelle; and on the 18th Nov. following, being engaged with his Brigade, he was again severely wounded. Sir John has received the Gold Medal for San Sebastian, and the Silver War Medal with two clasps for Vimiera and Nivelle.

C. steam frigate Sesostris during the naval action and destruction of the enemy's stockades on the Rangoon river; served during the succeeding three days' operations in the vicinity, and at the storm and capture of Rangoon; also at the assault and capture of Bassein, on the 19th May.

1 Lieut.-General a'Court was detached on a separate command in 1806 to the Adriatic, to attack the islands of Tremitis, and in the same year he assisted at the siege of Scylla. In 1807 he served in Egypt, and was present at the capture of Alexandria, and in the action near Rosetta. At the siege and capture of Santa Maura he was in charge of the Quarter-Master-General's department: he was also at the siege of Capri in the same year. [Returned from North America, 8 May 1818.]

¹ Lieut.-General Egerton, after serving as a subaltern with the 20th in North America, and proceeding as Captain with the 80th to South America, accompanied the 2nd battalion of the 54th to the Peninsula in 1809. In the following year he was appointed to the staff as Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, and attached to the second division, in which capacity he served at the battle of Hanoor, and on the retreat to, and during the subsequent occupation of the Lines before Lisbon. He was then removed as senior of the Adjutant-General's department to the fourth division; was present at the siege and capture of Oporto, the first siege of Badajoz, battle of Albuhera, wounded, and action of Alcaniz de Ponle. He relinquished his staff appointment and rejoined his regiment in the winter of 1811, and continued to serve with it until appointed aide-de-camp to Sir Rowland Hill in 1812, on which personal staff he remained until the termination of the war, and was present at the battles of Vittoria, Pyrenees, for which he obtained the brevet rank of Major, at Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse. On Lord Hill's appointment to a command with the army in France in the spring of 1813, he selected Colonel Egerton as his first aide-de-camp, who served as such at the battle of Waterloo, where he obtained the brevet of Lieut.-Colonel, and continued in the same capacity until the return of the Army of Occupation from France in 1818. When Lord Hill assumed the command of the Army in chief in 1824, he was pleased to name Colonel Egerton for the confidential appointment of first aide-de-camp and Private Secretary, which he held during the whole period of his Lordship's continuance at the head of the army. He has received the War Medal with eight clasps.

⁷ Surg. Webb served with the 14th Regt. throughout the Peninsular campaign of 1810-11, including the siege of the city of Badajoz, and the capture of the city of Salamanca, and was present at the battle of the Lines.

5 Capt. Ireland accompanied an expedition 80 miles up the Gambia, in 1849, on which service he commanded a field battery of artillery, consisting of three light six-pounders, two three-pounders, and a howitzer, having personally trained the men and horses for the occasion, and was most favourably mentioned in the public despatches, and recommended for promotion. He was also at the storm and destruction of the Town of Bambacoo, and in the subsequent engagements with the enemy.

2 Col. Montresor was employed on Particular Service in the Kaffir War of 1846-7.
3 Major d'Arcy was present on the Staff during the operations of a field-force in the Southern Mahratta Country in 1844-45, under Major-General De la Motte.
4 Lt.-Col. Foster served four years as a midshipman in the Royal Navy on the East India station, prior to entering the army. Was present at the capture of five ships having troops on board, going into Java Roads. Served in the Travancore war, in 1809; landed at Cochin with party under Capt. Foote, to assist the troops in storming the rear of that place; was afterwards wounded in the Straits of Malacca, when boarding some Malay praws. In the Kandian campaign of 1818, he was taken prisoner, and was rescued just at the period when the rebels were in the act of suspending him to a tree.

1 Lieut.-General Wood, served six years in the West Indies. Accompanied the expedition to Hispaniola in 1805. He next served the campaign of 1808-9, including the battle of Corunna. Subsequently at the siege of Flushing, he volunteered to storm the enemy's entrenchments, which he carried; and in November he was again sent to Walcheren to cover the embarkation of the troops when the island was evacuated. In 1810 he proceeded to the Mediterranean, where he served three years, and on being promoted, in 1813, to the Lieut.-Colonelcy of the 50th, he joined the army in Spain. In 1814 he accompanied the 50th to America, and commanded it at the battle of Bladenburg, where he received four severe wounds, had a horse shot under him, and was obliged to surrender himself as a prisoner of war. He has received the War Medal with one clasp for Corunna.

DUTIES AND ORGANIZATION.

The Commissariat are charged with the following duties:—In the Field they have hitherto had the custody of the Military Chest, and provided and paid for everything necessary for the subsistence and transport of an army. At the present time, on stations abroad, they have the charge of the Military Chests, negotiation of Bills for their supply, and receipt of all surplus monies arising from various sources in the hands of public departments, as also monies for remittance to England. They make advances to Regimental Paymasters on account of the Pay of the Troops, and to the Heads of the Ordnance and Naval Departments, on account of their respective services. They pay in detail the Staff, all money allowances and contingencies; also the Half-Pay and retired allowances, Chelsea Pensions, Widows' Pensions, Compassionate allowances, and Naval Pensions, &c., to all persons resident at the several stations. They contract and pay for Provisions required on the spot for the supply of the Troops, and for land and water transport. In the West Indies they pay in detail the Assistant Commissioners and Stipendiary Magistrates under the Provisions of the Slave Compensation Act: at some stations they perform the duties of Naval Agents. In Canada, Nova Scotia, and Jamaica, they pay the Ecclesiastical Establishments, and at the former they have the custody and issue of Indian Presents, and charge of the Locks and Collection of the Tolls on the canals connected with the St. Lawrence. In New South Wales and Van Dieman's Land, they supply Provisions, Clothing, and Stores, of all descriptions for convict services. They enter into contracts for Ordnance Stores, Building Materials, &c., on the spot, and provide and pay for supplies for Army Hospitals, superintend the issue of provisions, forage, fuel, and light in kind made by Contractors, and issue such articles of Provision as are sent out for the use of the Troops from England. Their duties are blended with the Army, Ordnance, Navy, and many other branches of the public service. They are under the orders of and responsible for the execution of their duties to the General or Officers commanding at the various stations, and receive their instructions from the Board of Treasury, with whom they correspond through the Secretary on all points of service on which they are engaged.
